

October 2023 changes for Central Operating Section Rule Book

October 2023 Rule Book changes

The following modules and handbooks will be reissued and come into force on 1st October 2023:

Module T3	3
Module HB 11	4

October 2023 Rule Book changes

Module T3

Key change

Changes throughout the module to allow for the updated process of handing back a T3 possession around an engineering train

Module or handbook changing

Definitions Line Clear Verification wording updated

Section 3.1 inclusion of bullet identification in planning a possession when giving up around a train and associated information box on page 14

Section 7 various changes to wording to cover normal arrangements where trains leave a possession and clarification of wording with EPAs being revoked with faulty track circuits

Section 7.5 completely reworded to allow for the giving up of a possession around an engineering train

Section 8 additional wording for drivers to cover the giving up of a possession around an engineering train

October 2023 Rule Book changes

Module HB 11

Key change

Changes throughout the module to allow for the updated process of handing back a T3 possession around an engineering train

Detail of change

Section 3.1 inclusion of bullet identification in planning a possession when giving up around a train

Section 5.8 additional bullet regarding removal of OTP and OTM

Section 8.4 completely reworded to allow for the giving up of a possession around an engineering train