

Smartmoves

Terms and conditions for competitions

1. These terms and conditions apply to any competition published in smartmoves - TfL's cycling, walking and accessibility publication.
2. The competition is promoted by Transport for London (TfL), the Promoter.
3. Transport for London reserves the right to use the entries and the names of the winners in future issues of the publication and in other TfL publicity.
4. The Promoter cannot accept entries should there be a request for names to be excluded.
5. Winners will be selected from the entries. The judges' decision is final and no additional correspondence will be entered into.
6. Prizes must be taken as offered. There are no alternatives.
7. Prizes won by contestants are offered on the basis that the recipient accepts all liability for the suitability of these products for their usage.
8. Entrants must comply with all rules to be eligible for the prizes. Entries found to be damaged, illegible, unintelligible, forged or tampered with in any way, will be declared void.
9. The Promoter does not accept responsibility for late or lost entries.
10. The Promoter reserves the right to cancel the competition or change the terms at any stage, if deemed necessary in their opinion, and where circumstances arise beyond their control.
11. Entrants will be considered to have accepted these rules and to agree to be bound by them when entering this competition.
12. The Promoter will not publish or provide entrants' contact details to third parties without their consent.
13. The competition is governed by the laws of England and Wales.