

1. Introducing new route 324

New links for Stanmore, Kingsbury and Colindale:

London Buses is proposing to introduce new route 324 between Stanmore and Brent Cross to provide:

- A new daily bus service for Colindeep Lane in Colindale
- A new daily bus service for Old Church Lane, Abercorn Road and St. Andrews Drive in Stanmore
- A new direct link between Hendon and Colindale
- A new direct link between Kingsbury and Brent Cross

Buses would run every 20 minutes during the day and every 30 minutes in the evenings every day of the week, using brand new single deck vehicles.

We are consulting you so that we can understand the needs and views of users and people living on and near to the proposed new route. The map shows the roads the new route would serve.

Route 324

New route 324 would run from Stanmore and serve Queensbury, Kingsbury, Colindale, Hendon and finish at Brent Cross, Tilling Road (close to the Tesco store).

There would be new links from Colindeep Lane to:

- Brent Cross Shopping Centre
- Northern line services from Hendon Central station
- Jubilee line services from Kingsbury station

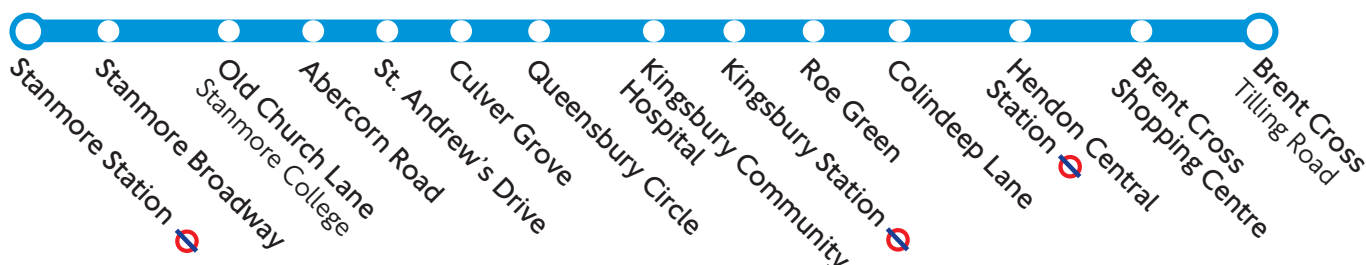

There would be new links from Old Church Lane, Abercorn Road, St. Andrews Drive & Culver Grove to:

- Brent Cross Shopping Centre
- Stanmore Broadway
- Jubilee line services from Stanmore and Kingsbury stations
- Northern line services from Hendon Central station
- Kingsbury Community Hospital
- Stanmore College

Where would buses stop?

Buses would stop at existing bus stops. Transport for London would consult with local authorities to provide suitable stopping arrangements on roads that currently have no bus service.
